

QUALITY POLICY

As an organization that has made important contributions to the country's economy, with the awareness of its responsibilities towards the environment and society, and has fulfilled the requirements of quality and technology, our goal is to ensure the continuous satisfaction of our customers.

Our existence sustains on one condition and that is to provide our customers with products and services that will provide the highest benefits and us their preference. All of our employees see each other as customers and work on a basis of zero mistakes and continuous improvement.

It is our main duty to ensure that our employees comply with the legal requirements and legislations, provide all applicable standards and customer requirements in our products. Our aim is to continuously improve our Integrated Management System and to ensure that it will set an example for the sectors that we operate.

We support and encourage the development of our personnel by providing full satisfaction of our customers, in that being maintaining happiness and satisfaction of our employees. Working with mutual cooperation and trust with companies that provide us with goods and services, reduce costs, increase our efficiency and long-term profitability is the only way to secure our future.

Our aim is to adopt to Total Quality Management and fulfill its requirements in order to systematically and regularly provide quality awareness in all activity fields and service units.

Our aim is to prioritize the internal and external elements we are related to and the expectations of the relevant parties while carrying out all responsibilities and duties.

Our duty and obligation as Sarnikon employees is to realize Total Quality Management.

GENERAL MANAGER